Program of the Day: Upon arrival at Arusha Airport our tour guide driver will pick you up while carrying lunch boxes for departure to Tarangire National Park for an amazing game drive. Our guides will drive a distance of approximately 151km from Arusha to Tarangire National Park.

Narangire National Park is named after the Tarangire River, the only source of water for the wildlife in the region during the dry season. The park is home to very diverse vegetation, unlike any others in the northern safari destination. Tarangire National Park contains a very large wildlife concentration, including the largest species of Africa's animals, and hundreds of bird species. The park was established in 1970 and is most famous for its large diversity of wildlife, vegetation, birds, tree-climbing African Pythons and baobab trees. Apart from game viewing also Tarangire National Park is the best Destination for bird watching, however tourists can engage in cultural visits and nature walking. After game drive you will enjoy your lunch box inside the park.
