DAY-3: 20/November/2023: Transfer from Karatu to Serengeti National Park

Karatu to Serengeti National Park: 2 Hours.

Program of the Day: After breakfast, you will continue towards the fertile highlands where coffee and other crops like corn and wheat are cultivated and grown by the Iraqw people. Passing through the Ngorongoro Conservation Area, a crater of unimaginable beauty created some three million years ago with the explosion of a volcano, you will be able to see the breathtaking expanse of the Ngorongoro Caldera. Proceed travelling onwards to the Serengeti National Park or Serengeti, 'Endless Plain' in Maa, the tongue of the Maasai. You will reach by midday.

The Serengeti National Park is among of the largest park in Tanzania with diverse amazing landscapes and habitats, such as grassy plains, swamps, lakes, savannah and mountains. Here the biggest wildebeest and zebra migration takes place and depending on the rain season, you may have the opportunity to witness thousands of animals on their search for food and water.

After an extensive game drive, you will drive to your campsite where you will enjoy dinner and an overnight stay.

DAY-4: 21/November/2023: Continue with Full day Game drive in Serengeti National Park.

Program of the Day: The entire day is set aside for more game drives in the Serengeti National Park while carrying lunch boxes. The Serengeti is the habitat for an abundance of wildlife, such as wildebeest, elephants, impalas, buffalo, crocodiles and hippos. However, it is more well-known for its great migrating herds of zebras and wildebeest. The animals' trek is determined by the rainfall and varies from year to year.

In November and December, the animals move from the northern region, dominated by woodlands and hills, to the grassy plains of the south (Ndotu Area). During the longer rainy season from April to June, they return to the north. Apart from the migrating herds, you might have the chance to see predators, such as leopards, cheetahs and lions, always lurking close by.
